

ABSTRACT OF THE INVENTION

957,498

C A non-metal window muntin formed from plastic or wood is described for use in hermetically sealed insulated glass windows. The process for forming the muntin includes machining polystyrene sheets which are painted with a latex <sup>paint</sup> ~~pain~~ and baked prior to use between sealed glass of the window.